Frequently Asked Questions

Cell Phone Protection

What if I already have cell phone insurance?

You can keep or cancel your existing insurance. With this protection, you have the ability to double-file. You can apply your co-pay with another carrier's insurance to your Benefits Checking coverage.

Do I need to keep copies of receipts or any other records?

Yes. If you want to file a claim, you will need a copy of your current checking account statement reflecting your monthly cellular bill payments deducted from your Benefits Checking account and your receipt for repair or replacement.

Roadside Assistance

Which vehicles are covered with roadside assistance?

Coverage is not tied to specific vehicles. On an individual account, you can make up to three claims per 12-month period on different vehicles. On a joint account, the first two users can use it on any vehicle.

What additional fees could I incur with roadside assistance?

Towing – Up to fifteen (15) miles at no out-of-pocket expense to you. Additional mileage is available and will be negotiated prior to sending out a service vehicle. Additional mileage is to be paid by you directly to the service provider at the time of service.

In the event a physical product is provided as part of the assistance, such as a new battery or gallons of fuel, you pay the market rate of the product.

What is Hit & Run Protection?

Hit & Run Protection: We will pay a person (excluding you or your family) $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of a person for the theft of your covered vehicle or tagged valuable articles.

Accidental Death & Dismemberment Insurance

How often will benefits be provided?

We will pay the benefits described in the Policy when a Covered Person suffers a Covered Accident any time while insured by the Policy. Unless otherwise specified, we will pay benefits only once for a Covered Accident.

Does a beneficiary need to be assigned?

Beneficiaries can be designated by the Beneficiary Designation form. However, Benefits will be paid out first to the spouse, second to the children, third to the parents, and fourth to siblings in the event no Beneficiary Designation form is used.
